MARKOWITZ, DAVIS, RINGEL & TRUSTY, P.A.
AND ITS ATTORNEYS RECEIVE HIGH HONORS FROM THE 2008 SOUTH FLORIDA LEGAL GUIDE

Miami, FL – November 26, 2007 – The 2008 South Florida Legal Guide, an annual publication listing the top lawyers and law firms in South Florida, both in private and governmental practice, has bestowed numerous honors upon the civil practice law firm of Markowitz, Davis, Ringel & Trusty, P.A.

Bringing positive recognition to attorneys deemed noteworthy by their peers, the 2008 South Florida Legal Guide listed the four name partners, Jerry M. Markowitz, Joseph I. Davis, Jr., Thomas Ringel and Candis Trusty, among the “Top Lawyers in South Florida.” Partner Ross R. Hartog and associate attorney Rachel Lopate Rubio received recognition as a “Top Up and Comers” for the fourth consecutive year, which recognizes top attorneys under the age of 40. The firm was also recognized as one of the “Top Law Firms in South Florida.”

Founding partner Jerry M. Markowitz concentrates his practice in the areas of creditors’ and debtor rights, including workouts, bankruptcy, asset recovery, insolvency, receiverships, reorganizations, restructuring and mediation. A resident of South Miami, he is one of South Florida's leading business and bankruptcy reorganization law practitioners and is listed in the directory of the Best Lawyers of America.

Founding partner Joseph I. Davis, Jr., a resident of Kendall, has practiced commercial law continuously in South Florida since 1973, has lectured on problem loans in Florida and has represented significant clients involved in all aspects of corporate, commercial and business transactions. Davis practices in the areas of litigation, insolvency, receiverships, workouts and corporate law.

Founding partner Thomas Ringel, a resident of Palmetto Bay, is one of Miami's foremost real estate attorneys, having performed countless residential and commercial real estate closings in the Palmetto Bay, Pinecrest, Kendall, South Miami and Coral Gables areas over the last 31 years. He is the former vice chairperson of the newly formed Palmetto Bay Charter Commission and a member of the South Miami-Kendall Bar Association.

Partner Candis Trusty, a resident of downtown Miami, focuses on the practice of probate, guardianship and elder law, as well as complex commercial litigation. An active community leader, Ms. Trusty is a frequent lecturer on topics related to probate, guardianship and elder law before local business groups, professional organizations, civic groups, schools and corporations. Additionally, she is widely recognized for her commitment to the elderly and the indigent in the community.

Partner Ross R. Hartog, a resident of Hollywood, is a member of the firm's bankruptcy practice group where he practices in the areas of creditors' and debtor rights, including workouts, bankruptcy, asset recovery, insolvency, receiverships, reorganizations, restructuring and mediation. Ross is the newly appointed President of the Bankruptcy Bar Association of the Southern District of Florida, and has been a member of its board for several years. He will also begin serving as an Adjunct Professor of Law at Nova Southeastern University this spring. Ross is admitted to practice before State and Federal courts in Florida and Arizona including the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, the United States District Court for the District of Arizona, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth and Eleventh Circuits.

Associate attorney, Rachel Lopate Rubio, a resident of South Miami, is a member of the firm's bankruptcy practice group where she concentrates on the areas of creditors' and debtor rights, including workouts, bankruptcy, asset recovery, insolvency, receiverships, reorganizations, restructuring and mediation, as well as assignments for the benefit of creditors. Ms. Rubio is admitted to practice before the Southern, Middle and Northern Districts of Florida.
